Local Rule 1014-1 Change of Venue (2013)

(a) Within the District. In the interest of justice or for the convenience of the parties, the court may change venue of a case or proceeding from one division of the court to another. A motion for intra-district transfer is governed by Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9014 [1] and Local Rule 9013-1 [2].

(b) To Another District. For procedures to change venue of a case or proceeding to another district, see DUCivR 83-7.1(a) and (c) and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1014 [1].

Source URL: https://www.utb.uscourts.gov/local-rules/2013/1014/1

Links
[1] https://www.law.cornell.edu/rules/frbp/rule_1014
[2] https://www.utb.uscourts.gov/local-rules/2013/9013/1