Local Rule 2090-3 Attorneys - Discipline and Disbarment (2014)

Upon motion of a party or on its own initiative, the court may impose sanctions on an attorney for violation of these Local Rules. Sanctions may include, but are not limited to, the assessment of costs, attorney's fees, fines, striking pleadings, revocation of Filing User privileges, or any combination thereof, against an attorney or a party. A person may also file a complaint under DUCivR 83-1.5(h). The court or a trustee may refer under 18 U.S.C. § 3057 [1]any appropriate matter regarding an attorney's conduct to the United States Attorney's office for action.
