Notice

From: David Sime, Clerk of Court

Re: Retirement of The Honorable Glen E. Clark

After more than 26 years of service, the Honorable Glen E. Clark will retire from the Bench on January 5, 2009. In anticipation of his retirement, the clerk's office is busy planning for the transition and will notify the Bankruptcy Bar and public of any scheduling changes which may be implemented.

At the present time, I ask that you continue to use the same calendaring methods as you have in the past for any case assigned to Judge Clark that requires a hearing.

For matters to be heard after January 5, 2009, please continue to call the same number for scheduling hearings (801-524-6549) and continue to use the preset hearings posted to the court's CM/ECF database for cases originally assigned to Judge Clark. Please note that matters set after the first of the year will be heard by other presiding judges. Information as to the judge hearing the matter and courtroom location will be specified on the CM/ECF Chambers Preset Report, the website hearing calendars, and the Courthouse bulletin board postings.

Please contact me at 801-524-6565, for any questions or concerns.
