UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF UTAH

*NOTICE REGARDING THE FILING OF A COMPLAINT
OBJECTING TO YOUR BANKRUPTCY DISCHARGE*

You have been named as a defendant in a complaint, filed in your bankruptcy case, that seeks to either deny your discharge of all debts under 11 U.S.C. § 727 or to determine that a specific debt should be excepted from discharge under 11 U.S.C. § 523. If you have not yet been served with a copy of the summons and complaint, you likely will be within the next few days. Even if you have already received your bankruptcy discharge, this is a serious matter that you should not ignore.

While individual debtors are entitled to appear without an attorney and represent themselves in the bankruptcy court, this nonetheless requires full compliance with the law and procedural rules that can be complex and confusing that can result in severe consequences for you personally. Before deciding to represent yourself in this complaint, which may result in a full or partial denial of your financial fresh start under bankruptcy law, you should consider consulting an attorney.

If you cannot afford an attorney, you may qualify for free legal assistance in defending against this complaint. To determine if you qualify, you must contact:

Utah Legal Services
205 North 400 West
Salt Lake City, UT 84103
Phone: 800.662.4245
Fax: 801.869.2715

NOTE: When you contact Utah Legal Services, you must have a copy of your Summons and Complaint readily available. Utah Legal Services will review your situation and determine if you are eligible for this program. If you qualify, a volunteer attorney may be appointed to represent you without payment of attorneys' fees. However, while some costs are covered by the program, you may still be responsible for the payment of other costs.
